

The Friday Notes

Celebrating 225 years!
September 5, 2014

Principal's Corner

On Wednesday we rang in West Side's 225th school year with 243 eager students as we held our traditional ringing of the school bell ceremony during morning assembly. Thank you to Student Council President, Johnny Maccarone, former Principal, Ted Hilton, and former teacher, Scott Bowden, for leading our student body in this traditional event. Students sat in the Hilton Gymnasium quietly as the sound of the original school bell echoed throughout the halls of our school. It was truly a great moment.

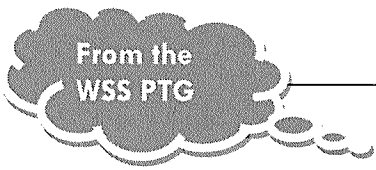

Throughout the week, students participated in a number of activities as they set goals, created class and grade level charters, participated in DASA (Dignity for All Students Act) workshops, and collaborated during book talks at our annual Summer Reading Celebration. This year, we chose our Summer Reading Book Club selections with a STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, Math) theme. Many of these books have appeared on Best Non-Fiction Books lists. Thank you to our sixth grade H.E.R.O. Spirit Photographers, Jack Corbin and Taylor Schneider for capturing these precious moments.

I want to extend an enormous thank you to Mrs. Reichbach and the PTG for the purchase and installation of our two new school signs that will greet us each morning and afternoon for years to come. In honor of our 225th year as a school, the signs denote the date of our school's establishment in 1790 and also recognize our National Blue Ribbon Award. Special thanks to Mrs. DeMarco and her team of student and parent volunteers for another successful school supply delivery! In addition, thank you to the DiScala and Vitagliano families for their generous donations which helped the PTG install a rock wall into the Hilton Gymnasium this summer. Students are excited to begin climbing and already used the newly installed cargo nets in the gym.

Get rest! Our first full week is next week! Welcome back!

Seussical Jr.

Auditions for 5th and 6th graders interested in participating in the school musical, Seussical, begins next week. Auditions are scheduled for Tuesday from 3:15 – 5:15 and callbacks are set for Thursday from 3:15 – 5:15 as well. Please contact Mr. Adler with any questions at 516.551.2797 or via e-mail at oldandnewellis@aol.com.
