

The Friday Notes

Celebrating 227 Years!
June 23, 2017

Principal's Corner

This week we distributed yearbooks to our students. What a wonderful keepsake to remind us of the 2016 – 2017 school year. I cannot thank Mrs. Cotek and Mrs. Catala enough for their dedication to the community! Additionally, on behalf of our student body, I would like to thank the entire PTG and our parent volunteers who served pizza to our students this week. What a great way to end the year! On Tuesday we honored our sixth graders at our annual Moving-Up Ceremony. All students spoke sharing words of wisdom, quotes and thanking people dear to them. I am so proud of what you have accomplished over the past five years at West Side. Good luck next year at the junior high. Also, thank you to Mrs. Dabakarov who passed out gifts to all of our graduates after the ceremony. It is a West Side tradition that a parent of a fifth grader takes on this role. On Thursday, students received a copy of the slideshow shared at the end of graduation. During our Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, our newest Student Council Senior Staff was announced. Congratulations to: Bennet Vitigiano – President, Kyrie Gagnon – Vice President, Daniel Wright – Secretary, and Molly McHale – Treasurer. I am looking forward to working with these sixth grade leaders in the fall.

Have a wonderful summer!
