THE SPOTLIGHT

December continues to be an active time for our LHS family! This week, we had Pajama Day, which was to help raise awareness about families who are in need of sleepwear during these cold winter months. The Student Council came up with the theme - Wear a Pair, Donate a Pair, to kick off our week-long PJ drive! All collected items will be donated to the Pajama Program in New York City. Earlier this month, Student Ambassadors created handmade holiday cards for children who are hospitalized in our area. The SA's absolutely loved creating the cards and are thrilled for the children to receive them! Our "Secret Snowman" activity will take place next week. Homerooms will be given clues by a secret staff member and on Friday afternoon, classes will make their guesses. The "reveal" will be done live on a special broadcast of LHTV News at 2:30! This is in lieu of our school-wide winter sing-a-long, since the gymnasium will be under construction for part of next week. (We are looking forward to a new floor when we return from break). As you may have noticed, our district website has had some recent enhancements. Please take a look on the Lloyd Harbor School Page for additions, stories and pictures!

CFA Literary Luncheon

featuring Long Island author

Regina Calcaterra

Wednesday, March 29, 2017 at The Huntington Country Club

This true story of a woman surviving domestic abuse as a child, emancipating herself as a teenager, and then becoming a successful attorney is courageous and fascinating. It is written with a descriptive restraint that recalls moments of tragedy and perseverance with simplicity and subtlety.
